

You can reduce your chances of wasting time and money on a solution that doesn't meet your needs.

Global ERP Software Market

$45 Billion in revenue from 2017 to 2022 at a CAGR of 7%

ERP strategy is a guideline containing measures & recommendations you should take before, during and after acquiring ERP software to ensure the ERP suite is functional and ultimately profitable

- Difficult workarounds for day-to-day processes
- Re-implementation of ERP that may lead to reduced confidence from executives and employees of ERP projects go over budget of ERP projects take longer than planned

How RAMA Can HELP

businesses experienced an improvement in their processes after implementing an ERP system

- Create a list of implementation goals
- Develop a budget
- List out the key business processes with input from stakeholders
- Think about your desired deployment method
- Plan & allocate training resources
- Select a Solution

RAMA is a boutique consulting firm having expertise in the field of IT Consulting, Risk & Business Advisory, Indirect Taxes, Management Assurance and Corporate Finance across varied industries for reputed corporate across the globe.

Increased Revenue

Reduced Manual Workflows

Gain Competitive Edge

Save Time Save Money

